

Department of Emergency Medicine

MOUNT SINAI
MEDICINE

Thank you for coming to our institution to speak. Many of our faculty and residents can not be here because they are staffing the EDs. In order to allow them to benefit from your presentation, we would like to tape the audio portion of your talk.

Please check one of the boxes below:

No, do not tape my talk

No recording will be made of your presentation.

You may tape my talk, but protect it with a password and delete it in 2 weeks

We will tape the talk and place it in a protected area of our web site. Only our residents and faculty will be able to access the talk. The link will expire 14 days after posting and we will not keep a copy. While it is on the site, it will be protected by a creative commons license.

You may tape my talk, but protect it with a password and leave it up indefinitely

We will tape the talk and place it in a protected area of our web site. Only our residents and faculty will be able to access the talk. While it is on the site, it will be protected by a creative commons license.

You may tape my talk and make it available to anyone on the Sinai EM Site

We will tape the talk and place it in on our web site in a publically available section. While it is on the site, it will be protected by a creative commons license.
